

Whatever the field of your activity, we have certainly the right guarantees which protect your enterprise adequately.

If your business is at the preparatory phase: in case your business premises are building or about to be built, we can offer you a variety of contracts which include, among others, the coverage of the building risks, the decennial liability, and the machinery assembly risks.

If your business is already in process: we offer you an almost endless list of policies which cover, among others

- your business properties, in case of fire, explosions, and allied perils, water damages, theft or attempted theft (including the theft of shares, securities, and transported funds) as well as your general third party liability, the producers' liability, and professional liability.
- your equipment, in case of machinery breakdown. For your computers, equally, we provide a wide range of guarantees which protect this kind of equipment in the most efficient way.
- your financial losses, in case of business interruption consequential to fire or machinery breakdown.

We can also protect your business with the same effectiveness in several other ways, namely when it comes to the insurance of your merchandizes against loss during their transport by land, sea, or air, all over the world, whether in case of importation or exportation, as well as your sales on credit, thanks to our solid partnership with COFACE, a world specialist in the reinsurance of this risk .

All the previous risks can be covered either by separate policies or by our newly conceived package contracts. Among these we can mention PROTECT PLUS, a polyvalent policy conceived for craftsmen, small traders, and members of the liberal professions, together with OPTMUM, another package contract specially designed for physicians, lawyers, and members of the service industry. For business enterprises, we propose PLURALIS, an appropriate package contract which can be tailored to answer the specific needs of most enterprises, whatever their importance, activities, or location.